

230-X-1-.03

Company Continuing In Business After Death Of

Sole Proprietor. If a company is licensed as a sole proprietorship and the sole proprietor dies, the company can continue to operate long enough to finish work on hand. Before any new work commences, a new license must be obtained.

Author:

Statutory Authority: Code of Ala. 1975, §34-8-22.

History: Filed September 16, 1982.